Millerand Firm in Resisting Any Concessions in Terms.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, April 21.—Germany has asked the inter-allied conference at San Remo to increase from 100,000 to 200,000 men the standing army provided for Germany by the terms of the treaty of Versailles. The request was contained in a note handed to the French foreign office last evening with the demand that it be sent to the supreme council at San Remo.

The note set forth that an increased force was necessary for the maintenance of order in the interior and that, furthermore, the army would not accept an order for its reduction.

The note further requests that Germany be allowed to retain the entire general staff and corps of officers which means the entire frame work of the active army.

Referring to the German army, the note stated that Germany was not prepared to accept an order for its reduction.

Survivors of Storm Seek Aid; 155 Dead

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Birmingham, Ala., April 21.—Assistance from the outside world is urgently needed for the relief of tornado survivors in a dozen counties of Mississippi, Alabama and Tennessee, reports today from the storm swept district said. With a death list of 155 already reported and a property loss which will run into many millions, the tornado has taken rank as one of the most disastrous as well as most widespread in the annals of the south.

Medical Aid Insufficient.
Hundreds of injured require medical attention, and the forces of physicians and nurses available locally are inadequate to cope with the situation. Tents and other temporary structures must be erected for numerous families whose homes were obliterated, and a shortage of food is feared as a result of the destruction of barns and warehouses, coupled with the complete obstruction of communicating roads.

The storm apparently struck in the rich farming belt lying around Bay Springs, Jasper county, Mississippi, and moved northeast across the remainder of the state to vent its fury upon the extreme northwestern tier of counties in Alabama, before moving into Tennessee.

All reports agree as to the extreme velocity of the wind which leveled everything in its path. In and near Meridian 21 persons lost their lives while 18 employees at a lumber camp in Neshoba county were killed in the destruction of the camp structures.

The deaths in Mississippi already reported totaled 118. Of these, Aberdeen and Meridian had 21 each, Rose Hill 6, Bay Springs 7, Glen 10, Igoumar 6, Starkville 6, Neshoba county 5, and others scattered.

Alabama reported a death of whom 10 were in Marion county and 13 in Killingworth Cove. The others were scattered.

Only three known dead were reported in Tennessee, one in Williamson county and 2 in Maury county.

STATE TO GIVE TO TORNADO SUFFERERS
TAKING CARE OF THEM
Jackson, Miss., April 21.—Acting Gov. Castell was in conference with national guard officials relative to the care of the storm victims today. The governor stated that the state would render every assistance to tornado sufferers.

R. C. SENDS TENTS AND SUPPLIES TO SURVIVORS
New Orleans, April 21.—The Gulf Division of the American Red Cross has sent a carload of tents, blankets and medical supplies together with a carload of food to the storm victims in Mississippi.

France, it was indicated, will resist any concessions to Germany which might result in the German army or the frame work of the organization as stipulated by the treaty.

Withdrawal of allied troops from part of the Rhine land in consideration of immediate execution by Germany of certain financial obligations under the treaty of Versailles is proposed by Italy and Great Britain at San Remo conference, says a French official.

The American government would include disarmament of Germany under threat of blockade, and the simultaneous inauguration of a policy of reconciliation with Germany, which adds that, in view of M. Millerand's refusal to join them, Premier Nitti and Lloyd George are not likely to persist in carrying out their proposals.

AUSTRIANS PROTEST
SEIZURE OF CATTLE
Vienna, April 21.—Incidents of almost daily occurrence in the province of Carinthia, which is under the control of the central government on the part of many of the provinces. The situation is considered so serious that the provincial diet of Carinthia has petitioned the provincial diet of Styria by leaders of the social democratic party.

A patrol of about 100 gendarmes went into the Radkersburg district in Styria to round up cattle due the state. After a few cattle had been collected, the gendarmes had the peasants their purpose and then the main body went in pursuit, leaving a small guard over the herd. Peasants armed themselves with pitchforks and drove away the guard. The main body was recalled to meet the emergency but instead of driving a group of beasts nearly 1,000 determined men equipped with rifles and machine guns, the gendarmes were driven and sent away and the cattle were restored to their owners.

GASCO. ASKS RAISE IN RATES TO CARE FOR BIG EXPANSION

RAILROAD COMMISSION
PETITIONED TO GRANT
GENERAL BOOST OF
50 CENTS PER
1,000.

MANY REASONS

Increasing Costs of Labor and Material—$60,000 Needed for 1920 Expansion—Cited as Reasons.

In a broad and minute declaration that extension conditions are extant under which it is in position to build a new plant, the New Gas Light Co., of Janesville, has filed petition with the Wisconsin railroad commission praying for authority to increase its rates in Janesville from the base of $1.40 to $1.90.

Estimating that 300 new homes will be built in Janesville this year, listing the increased density of population involving the over-working of mains and unsatisfactory service for several years, the company is declaring for compliance with the general charter under which the city operates, which requires that all property abutting on streets, where permanent paving is installed, shall have a gas service laid to the curb line; the company, to demonstrate its good faith, in the plea for the increase, declares:

"The stockholders of the New Gas Light company agree to increase the rates on the plant in condition again to give satisfactory service."

"$1.44 is Production Cost.
Considering increasing prices of materials and labor, coal and coke the company estimates it will cost $1.44 to deliver gas to the consumer. The present price is 12 cents per 1000 feet of gas. This production cost, the petition alleges, is a total of $65,000 must be provided for 1920 expansion."

proper working of the plant. Mains and meter service for new homes to be built this summer are figured to cost $60,000. Pressure main, water mains and services and a total of work charges and mains, meters and services carried over from 1919, where the company is provided with materials, will add the remaining $35,000, the paper points out.

The company's plan is to enable the company to secure the necessary funds, whereupon to pay for the new plant, which is provided in Janesville faces the danger of an interruption and possible failure of its gas supply in the near future. This statement is made in no spirit of threat, but only with an honest purpose to place before the railroad commission and the people of Janesville the actual conditions.

The new schedule of prices as asked for would be as follows:

	Proposed Present
First 2,000 feet	12.00
Next 2,000 feet	11.50
All in excess of 5,000	1.10
Minimum bill	50c per month

NITTI CLAIMS ITALY
BELIEVED IN CAMPAIGN
San Remo, April 21.—Premier Nitti of Italy charged that a campaign of falsehood is being conducted by unknown persons against his country.

The dissemination of false news detrimental to Italy is an abominable thing, Premier Nitti said. He is a veritable campaign of libelous falsehoods. By whom it is promoted? Many telegrams which claim to have come from Italy prove to have been sent from neighboring countries by persons who have not lived in Italy and who are acting in the interests of unknown parties.

Arthur J. Balfour, British member of the league of nations executive council, who has been acting as a presiding officer at the council's sessions, arrived in San Remo today to represent the league of nations in the discussions with the supreme council regarding the mandate for Armenia, which the league had been asked to assume.

CONNORS HELD FOR PAPKE'S DEATH

Case of Youth Who Drove Car
Which Caused Papke Boy's
Death Set for May 10.

Earl Connors, 17-year-old boy, who drove the car which killed 5-year-old Harold Papke, Sunday, March 21, must stand trial on two charges—the first for driving recklessly at excessive speed, the second for having neglected to stop immediately after striking the boy. Both are serious offenses.

Judge H. L. Maxfield bound the youth over for trial in municipal court, May 10, at the request of the state's attorney, who had submitted an affidavit showing an offense had been committed and that there was probable cause to believe the defendant guilty.

Bail, boosted from $300 to $500, was signed by Fred Bernis, whose car Connors was driving when he struck the Papke boy.

The first complaint against Connors was reckless driving. The second is for driving at excessive speed.

Accepted Inquest Testimony
The state, in the hearing today, introduced testimony of a coroner's inquest. Judge Maxfield over-ruled objection of E. H. Ryan, defendant's counsel, and accepted the testimony of a few minutes later, announcing his decision to hold Connors for trial.

The second part of the complaint is for driving at excessive speed. It is charged that Connors, after striking the boy, failed to stop to give assistance, or to give his name and address to the owner of the car, to any bystander.

Chicago, April 21.—Striking railroad men in the Chicago district refused today to vote on the question of returning to work.

All efforts of a committee of strike leaders to obtain action failed. Mr. J. Kenney, Jr., S. Murphy and Shannon Jones, three of the strike leaders arrested last week, made the appeal for a return to work at a mass meeting of striking yardmen. Grunau still in jail.

They were greeted with cries of "no strike" and "back to work." Jones explained that efforts to obtain the release of John Grunau, president of the Chicago Yardmen's association, from Joliet county jail on bond had not succeeded.

Murphy, waving an American flag, took the floor to declare he "would not fight the American government." He was greeted with catcalls and hisses.

The offending statement in the letter was already characterized by the teachers as "un-American."

The teachers are up in arms over the wording of the letter, which they say gives a "very unfavorable view of the teachers' union" and which they believe was used to coerce them into joining. Up to this time only two of the faculty voted to federate, two were undecided and the rest voted "no."

Remember when the first automobile came to town

TODAY there are more than 7,000,000 of them in the country. Pretty soon nearly everybody in this section will be traveling around in his own automobile

The first thing a man wants to know nowadays, when he starts out to buy a car, is how much it is going to cost him to keep it running.

It's all very well to take some dealer's word about a tire—if you know who he is and his object in selling it to you.
Our object in selling U. S. Tires is to have you come back for more—and be glad that we sold them to you.

III
U. S. Tires have a record behind them.
They are built by the people who perfected the first straight side automobile tire, who produced the first pneumatic truck tire.
Two of the greatest contributions to tire and motor economy ever made.

IV
As representatives of the oldest and largest rubber concern in the world, we have a reputation to live up to. We can't afford to substitute "just as good" tires for tires of standard quality.

MILK BOTTLES MUST BE FILLED
UP TO THE TOP

The weights and measure division of the Wisconsin dairy and food commission has just issued a letter which will be of interest to all consumers of milk. It reads:

"We have recently concluded an investigation in Madison as to the filling of milk and cream bottles. Our investigation showed many bottles were slack-filled, the level of the liquid being from one-half to seven-eighths inch below the cap seat. It is probable that this condition is general throughout the state.

"Our investigation revealed the fact that the filling machines in general use are capable of being adjusted and used so that the bottles can be uniformly well filled, and that shortages such as are mentioned above are the result either of gross carelessness on the part of the operator or are caused by the filling machine being out of adjustment.

"The department has taken the position that milk and cream bottles must be so filled that the average level of the liquid is not more than one-eighth inch below cap seat and that the maximum allowable error in individual bottles is one-fourth inch. On this basis two prosecutions were made in Madison and the resulting publicity has cleared up the entire situation there, at least, for the time being."

JUDGE GRIMM IS
BIRD HOUSE BUILDER

Take a coconut, saw it in two, dig out the meat, put the shell together and burn a hole about an inch and a half in one side. Hook it on a wire and hang in a tree.

You will have a wren house that will beat them all. No less an authority on birds than Judge George Grimm says so, and if you do not believe it, see a sample of the dozen

COUNCIL RE-ELECTS
ALL CITY OFFICERS

All Elections Are Made Unanimous—Few Changes in Standing Committees for Year.

That grand old army, City Government, picked its leaders for a few hours last night, gathered to hear instructions from its commander, and with two new recruits, broke camp to resume the 1920 march toward a Greater Janesville. That the drive will be carried on in perfect harmony with no one losing time by the way was the conclusion reached last night.

Every appointive city official was re-elected by the new council in its initial session. All elections were made unanimous. Names of the city officers, together with Mayor Welsh's committees, appear in an adjoining article.

Dulin Named President.
Ald. J. J. Dulin, of the Fifth ward, re-elected president of the council, responding to the honor with a brief speech. The routine of re-electing each city officer and of choosing May 3 as the next regular meeting date was followed out with precision.

Ald. E. F. Kelly of the Fifth ward was re-elected as the council's representative on the city planning commission and an appointment of Harry O. Nowlan to succeed himself on the fire and police commission for a five-year term, was endorsed.

With but few changes, the standing committees for 1920 remain the same as for 1919. In making his appointments, the mayor stated he had left the old councilmen on practically the same committees and had placed the two new aldermen, Walter Helms and George J. Traver, on committees in whose work he thought they would fit.

Three New Chairmen.
Only three changes were made in the chairmanship of committees, Alderman Horn heading the schools body to succeed L. J. Cronin, Alderman Traver heading the Aldermen committee succeeding Alderman Horn, and Alderman Helms succeeding Alderman Paulz as chairman of the public buildings committee. The mayor explained that each member of each committee is just as important as its chairman. In his opening address he made a plea for the public and thanked old councilmen for past work.

In the brief business session following election, a committee was appointed to draw up an ordinance establishing a fee for use of the city ambulance. Ald. L. D. Horn was made chairman, with Aldermen Helms and Helms as his associates. The highway committee was instructed to draft an ordinance governing auto parking.

Horn Makes Address.
Alderman Horn, in a short address, pleaded for alleviation for poor people hard hit by the 1920 paving program, explaining that when the public utilities came in with their attorneys to ask for concessions, the council is only too willing to grant them. He mentioned the new ordinance in regard to paving between street car tracks as an example of favors for the utilities. It was explained by Mayor Welsh that individual adjustments in regard to people unable to pay for paving, in regular assessments would be made at the public hearing to be held shortly by the board of public works.

Why the Cleveland Six is Multiplying Its Friends

The Cleveland Six is making new friends every day, thousands of them every month, because it brings them so much more than they had even dared to expect,—so much more of the pleasure of driving, and the ease of driving and of the comfort of riding.

The motor of the Cleveland Six—designed by the Cleveland company's own engineers, tested in road work and engineering shops for three years before being offered to the public, and now built in the company's own great factory—is something new to countless thousands of motorists who prefer the light six type of car.

They have never driven behind just such a motor as this. The wonders of its pick-up and flexibility are exceptional and the brakes sure. Low underslung spring construction and soft restful cushions give the Cleveland unusual qualities of comfort.

Since first sent out on its journey into the big world of motordom, last July, the Cleveland Six has made friends, and multiplied them. Thousands of owners know what a good car it is and they tell their friends.

CAVALRY TROOP FOR JANESVILLE

Adjutant General Authorizes Formation of One Here—Capt. Feagin Recruiting.

Janesville has been officially allotted a cavalry troop and the work of recruiting its membership will proceed. The order from the office of the adjutant general came this morning and is:

In the re-organization of Wisconsin National Guard, one troop of Cavalry is allotted to be raised and maintained at Janesville.

In order that the recruitment of this unit may be accomplished as soon as possible, and pending later selection of officers for the troop, Captain Feagin, commanding officer of Company "I," Tank Corps company, is authorized to enlist for cavalry National Guard men. In addition to his duties as commanding officer of the Tank Corps company, he will take such steps as in his judgment will most quickly procure the enlistment for the proposed cavalry troop of its required minimum strength.

The troop will consist of 72 men and 35 horses. The mounts are furnished by the government together with stabling which has been arranged for with the fair association. Capt. Feagin is now securing enlistments.

TAKING KAISER'S PROPERTY SEEMS SERIOUS GERMAN JOB

The first reading of the bill for the financial settlement between the Hohenzollerns and the state led to a heated debate in the Prussian assembly, in which the party differences stood out sharply, says Vorwärts, Berlin (Moderate Socialist). According to the finance committee the division would be as follows:

Private Property:
1. 30 castles and estates, to be retained by the Hohenzollerns.
2. 26 castles and estates, together with any pictures and valuables, to be handed over to the state, for which compensation is to be paid.
State Property:
Fifty castles and estates to be renounced by the Hohenzollerns in favor of the state.

The decision has aroused great indignation in the socialist parties. They reckon that, according to this settlement, the private estate of the Hohenzollerns amounts to about one billion marks and consider that some of it at least should become public property.

There is, however, a clause in the German constitution (Weimar, July, 1919), which runs: "Expropriation can only be undertaken in the common interest and in virtue of a law. Adequate compensation shall be paid, unless a national law lay down contrary regulations." The social democratic faction of the national assembly and the Prussian state assembly have therefore passed a resolution that the government be asked immediately to enact a law whereby full compensation for the expropriation of the former Prussian royal house need not be made.

The democratic party, according to the Frankfurt Zeitung, has taken the line that the question is purely a legal one and should not be mixed up with politics.

The Centrum opinion was expressed in the Prussian assembly by Mr. Oppenheff, who said that property is guaranteed by the constitution and that the private property of the royal house enjoys the protection of the law like any other; the question of the Kaiser's responsibility for the war is in no way connected. This was also the view of the Monarchist parties, says the Cologne Volkszeitung.

RATE BOOST DENIED TO INTERURBAN CO.

Holds Utility Is Realizing Reasonable Profit on Investment.

The Wisconsin railroad commission yesterday refused a petition of the Rockford and Interurban company for an increase in rates. The commission found that the company was earning a reasonable return on its investment.

The interurban company sought to boost its rates to three cents per mile between Janesville and Beloit. It received the decision of the commission and sent it to Mr. Sparks, the general manager, said William H. Dougherty, local legal representative of the company.

According to Mr. Dougherty there is no ruling at the present time as to the request. He said, "The interurban company is waiting to see what the result will be from Janesville's growth resultant to the location here of the Samson plant."

FACTORIES BUILD HOMES FOR HELP

Pittsburgh Industries Relieve Shortage of Houses for Employees.

Pittsburgh—Important industrial corporations in the Pittsburgh district are financing home building operations by their employees to relieve the house shortage in mill and mining communities. For the general public, trust companies have adopted similar plans and are now accepting what they term "installment mortgages" to pay for it.

10 Percent Paid Down
The most ambitious program of the lot is that of the United States Steel corporation. Under this plan an employee, who is willing to make an initial investment of 10 percent of the total cost, is permitted to select from a large number of plans the kind of house that will suit his family. He then picks out a lot, usually near his place of employment, and the corporation's architects and builders do the rest. When the house is completed it is turned over to the employee, who alleges himself to pay for it in monthly installments covering a period of 10 years.

The total cost being just what the cost has been to the corporation. Although the plan is scarcely a month old, the bureau in charge of building is already swamped with applications.

Sell Houses at Cost
The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company also has a building plan and has just completed and sold to employees 50 houses at cost. They too are to be paid for in the installment plan. Another and much larger program is in preparation.

The merit of these plans, builders say, is that materials can be purchased in large quantities and the saving passed on to the workman buyer, who thus gets a much better home for less money than if he had bought the material and erected the house as an individual.

Moving Day to Try Patience
Moving Day, which is May Day, is expected to prove a trying time to many persons, according to real estate and renting agents. Rents have advanced steadily during the past two years until now they are from 25 to 100 percent higher than in the early days of the war. A renters league has been formed for the purpose of fighting the legal battles of persons who may be evicted because of their inability to pay the increased rents.

League has been operative May 1. The council and already is asking the public to send in its complaints. Leaders in the union labor movement are prominent in the league.

LOAN ASS'N. GETS STARTED TONIGHT

General Public May Attend Meeting of New Building Body at C. of C.

Persons interested in the Janesville Building and Loan association, mutual investors and those seeking to borrow money, are invited to the meeting of the organization, to be held at 8 o'clock this evening at the Chamber of Commerce. J. F. Hammarlund, former city clerk, is temporary chairman of the association.

Speaking today, "There have been two such organizations in Janesville in the past. Investors never lost a cent, in fact they made money in every instance. The reason for their discontinuance was that conditions, locally, did not warrant their existence. But they closed their books and demonstrated the safety of this form of business."

Fully inspected. "The new association will be governed along practically the same lines. The Wisconsin Banking commission gives organizations of our nature as much attention as it does state banks to protect stockholders and investors."

"The plan should appeal particularly to the small investor, to young man and young woman who can spare two or three dollars weekly. We have had numerous inquiries from this class. Details will be given in full at the meeting this evening."

Open Offices May 1.
It is expected that the association will be able to open its office in the Chamber of Commerce about May 1. A representative will be in attendance at all times.

A charge of 7.5 percent interest will be made on money borrowed. Investments will pay six percent.

OVERALLS AND THE HIGH COST WHEN DEMAND GROWS

The organization of "Overall Clubs" to combat the high cost of clothing has only begun, but the movement has proceeded far enough to prove one fundamental fact in higher prices. Dealers in Birmingham, Alabama, discovered the sudden demand for overall trousers, they advanced prices from $2 to $6 a pair.

At there is not the slightest reason to suppose that the cost of ordinary clothing was reduced to correspond, the immediate effect of the concerted effort to economize in clothing was reduced to correspond.

is to increase the cost of what hitherto has been the cheapest grade. If everybody takes to wearing overalls they will become, as the World ironically reminded the organizers, a costume of affluence instead of economy. A gradual and unannounced increase in the demand might have had little effect on prices, but with everybody rushing to buy at once, the inevitable result is to inflate them.

The rule is the same for overalls as for theater tickets or diamonds or Stutz motors; when the demand exceeds the supply the dealer has the buyer at his mercy and can charge what he pleases. No doubt the motives actuating the organizers of "Overall Clubs" are praiseworthy as evidencing an attempt to meet the higher cost of living by individual economy. But the best way to that end is to reduce consumption and not merely to divert it into new channels.

There could be much effective direct action of this sort if every American family resolved itself into an "Old Clothes Club," and proceeded to make its discarded suits and shoes and hats do another year. New York World. (Dem.)

PAYS HEAVY FINE FOR STEALING AT SAMSON FACTORY

Pleading guilty to the theft of $50 worth of 4-inch heating at the Samson Tractor plant, Ronald Fluck, world war veteran, was fined $125 and costs, or a total of $125.20 by Judge Mack in municipal court today. Chief W. F. Mason, of the Samson force, alleged that Fluck had stolen other articles in addition to the heating.

Fluck, a Washburn youth, served a year overseas. Excellent recommendations given him by his captain and a lieutenant, written to the judge, had much to do in making the sentence light.

He paid the fine rather than take the alternative—one year in the county jail.

ABOUT PAVING BETWEEN THE TRACKS.

It is rather hard to understand the mental attitude of the council in voting to tax the property owners for the paving between the car tracks except that excess cost entailed by the more expensive laying of the material.

It is almost a universal rule in cities where traction companies are given the use of streets, that the paving between the rails and even a part of that within several feet of the tracks, is paid by the franchise owners. It is a small amount compared with the value of the franchise given the company by the people. Janesville is growing, and while the revenues of the company operating the street car lines, is far from satisfactory, the number of passengers is increasing and will continue to increase as the industries are built up and get into full operation.

We believe in generous treatment of all things that are good for the city, but at best our transportation system is poor and inadequate. Its very salvation is in the city's growth, which it has only partially met. We have promises of added cars and better service. However none of these are of sufficient weight to induce the council to make an exception to a general rule in reference to paving. It is unfair and unjust to the property owners.

ARE YOU A VICTIM?

The Gazette would thank anyone who has been a victim of rent profiteering if he or she will report it to us.

One reason is we want to see that Janesville receives its fair amount of taxes from those who are exploiting the needs of the newcomer for his own unrighteous profit, and that the increased earnings of the property be returned in increased valuations.

In Milwaukee it is shown that a flat rented a year ago for $45 was raised to $53, then to $65, and later to $82.50, all in a few months. These things should be kept out of Janesville.

THE PRICE OF COTTON.

Cotton, the gold mine product of the south, has reached the highest point known since the close of the civil war. Spot middling upland, the basis for cotton quotations, is being sold at above 40 cents. Six years ago when the whole north was being called upon to "buy a bale of cotton" and save the south, the staple was selling at 6 and 7 cents. A bale weighs 500 pounds and the production differs—good land yielding a bale to the acre. At 40 cents the planter would get $200 an acre for a crop that requires a minimum of care in tending and the hardest part only is getting help for the picking. But the seed also brings a proportionate increase in price now and that is an item which never used to count in the planter's calculations. But we are not so much interested in the cotton grower as we are in the results of the high priced cotton to us who have to use it. Cotton was not stabilized in war time as was wheat. The south, the greatest beneficiary of the Wilson war program, constantly fought the effort to keep the price of cotton out of speculation. Congress failed on account of the strength of the southern members who dominated the democratic party.

We will pay the price to the south in increased prices for cotton fabrics, even the overalls being affected. Higher prices than those now quoted for the raw product, are predicted by the speculators and the May future price of 40 cents is indicative of the strength of the belief. Percales, gingham, calicoes, print goods, cotton ducks, denims—all the staples that enter into the economical buying of the household, are bound to feel the effect of the higher cotton and the prices will be added by the wholesaler long before any of the high priced cotton gets into the cloths. "What's one man's meat is another man's poison," is well illustrated here. The south has never been so prosperous, and white and black have participated in the cotton price jump.

HERE COMES THE PATCHES PARADE.

It someone with good horse sense will inaugurate the fad of having nice bright colored patches on the seat of the trousers, it would be worth while—much more than the overall craze. There are probably 25,000,000 patchable pairs of pants in the U. S., although the census enumerators overlooked this very valuable statistical information. It will take, say, 1,000,000 pairs to patch the others, leaving 19,000,000 pairs of perfectly wearable garments. At the present commercial rate they are worth at least $95,000,000 or a per capita circulation of trousseau value of about a dollar a head. We prefer red—bright red—and there will be no one taken for an anarchist who wears vermilion reinforcement where the garment is called upon to give most service for these participants in the present overall parades.

Overalls are the insignia of opulence. They no longer are the garb of servitude. They mean much—that the wearer is producing something for the benefit of mankind. For the clerk and the dilettante to sport overalls is merely the acceptance of a passing fad. It is neither conclusive nor helpful. But patches have always been the badge and sign of honest poverty; sometimes of thrift. "Make things go as far as they will" was the motto of the pioneer. So he wore patches, honorably and to his credit. He was more apt to get a loan at the bank than the man of the village who sported the newest clothes and the finest of sartorial adornment. It is far more to the point to wear old clothes, patched and darned, than it is to go into the overall market and build the price so that the man who really wants the garments will have to pay the difference. One can be just as conspicuous with a pair of pants patched with red flannel as one can in a pair of overalls.

ANOTHER REVELATION FOR THE CHURCH.

In further evidence of the slump in the power of the church is the report of the director of the Home Survey of the Interchurch World movement, published in the World Outlook. He says:

"Not long ago a thousand representative workmen were asked to vote for their preference among sixteen social agencies found in the average city—churches, labor unions, lodges, libraries, art galleries, forums and the like. Of the entire list the church received the lowest vote. These are the stark facts which show necessity of drastic changes in church methods or the church contact with the public, if the church is to stand. Coupled with the statement of Dr. Carroll, whose figures on the church census were published in the Gazette last week, they are most interesting masses. The church must answer the grave as showing the drift of present thought in the question of what is to be done to change public opinion and stop the drift away from it. It evidently is not meeting the situation. Just now with the atheistic tendencies fostered by the socialistic plan of internationalization, it becomes even more important that the church be a living thing."

WELCOME THE NEW COUNCIL.

The new city council has a large responsibility. It is to do much or little for the new Janesville. That depends on its attitude. Janesville needs much to meet the new conditions. It cannot all be done at once, but much of it can be accomplished in the coming year. We are to have paving, the beginning, it may be said, of a new era in street improvement. There is need for the most careful inspection. Success in city management is in "overhauling team work." It's the pull on the even wheelwrecks that counts. The men who sit in the council represent the people. They have been put there as the agents and employees of the citizenship of the municipality. They start with the full and unprejudiced support of their constituents. We have faith in them now and hope to have confidence un misplaced a year from date.

One reason why kings are not so popular any more is the string of pearls found among the effects of the dead Gaby Deslys, given her by the once King Manuel of Portugal, valued at a million francs.

There should be no hesitation on the part of Janesville in giving its whole-hearted support to the farmers in building a community house and sales pavilion.

Now if some of these overall wearers with gold buckles and pearl buttons, will grab a hoe and make a garden the craze will not have been in vain.

Old clothes are worn with much better grace when you back them with the confidence that you could buy a new suit if you wanted to.

Wonder what old John Brown, whose soul goes marching on, would have said about the lynching of that negro in Kansas.

Those Oklahoma towns are showing up in the census reports with big gains. It pays to have oil about the place.

In order to have a free hand in further Armenian activities the Turks are hoping the troops will take French leave.

Mexican revolutionists seem to have been fed up on the jumping bean of that home of cactus and merryhell.

In its efforts to impeach the assistant secretary of labor, congress seems to be stuck at the Post.

State and Nation Press

You can find some one that is willing to beat a carpet this spring, by giving 'em the carpet—Marionette Eagle-Star.

We are also aware of the fact that there are many large substantial homes in this city occupied by very small families that might "close up" a little to accommodate the home-hunting way-farer, until such time as better arrangements could be provided. There are several large store buildings with unoccupied upper stories that might easily be converted into temporary flats for those who are here seeking employment and needing homes. Those who would in time make desirable citizens. It's enterprising working people that make a city; not retired citizens, that neither build nor produce.—Fortage Register-Democrat.

State Senator Roy P. Wilcox, who made the run against Governor Philipp in the primary two years ago, has formally announced his candidacy for the republican nomination for governor. Senator Wilcox is one of the strong men in the state. He represents no faction, but asks for a "new deal in Wisconsin politics."—Antigo Journal.

The La Follette platform is the explanation. It simply was rotten—the like of it could not possibly be acceptable to Philipp or to any other man of principle. It brought to the La Follette candidate a mass of socialists, all the bolsheviks, both violent and academic, all elements of discontent, all the voters not happy over Germany's failure to dominate the world, all pacifists, all peace weaklings, all special pleaders for soap-box license, all who quaked over espionage possibilities, all who hate England.—Madison Democrat.

JUST FOLKS

THE REAL RICH.
The hand which does no useful toil is very soft and white. And on its fingers jewels gleam and sparkle. But better far the weary hand, the calloused hand of care. For it has done more lovely things than idle hands can wear.

The painted cheeks of women fair who meet at pleasure's shrine, the trace of tears or trouble's lasting line. But sweeter far the gentle face which wears the marks of work.

For it has lived more loveliness than pleasure can bestow. The rippling voice of luxury is pleasant to the ear. But selflessness is in its speech and it is cold and dear.

But let me hear the words of those who live with common things. For they've a knowledge of the world which is denied to kings. I've stood where all was gayety and watched the idle hands. I've seen the women fair who wait on fashion's per commands. I've heard the empty words which pass in pleasure's brilliant scenes. But only they are rich on earth who know whose duty means.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

BALLADE OF THE UTA CONSUMER.
Up to the milkman call.
His bottles rattle in the hall.
It's five o'clock and that is all.
I'll save his milk in up in price.
Sing ho for the merry milkman.
He's a jolly wight.
Who pumps all night—
A toast to the cheerful milkman.

Back to the old hay to enjoy.
A snooze, then come the pitcher's boy.
A lunch of cold beef and polio.
Who brings the chops, with good intent.
And says they have gone up a cent.
Sing ho for the honest butcher.
Who lures to the slaughter.
A price that's large—
A cheer for the suffering butcher.

And then, the piercing summons: "Tea!"
How much today? It's up in price—
Fifteen cents for a ten-cent slice.
Shake a leg or you'll be late!
I haven't got all day to wait!
Sing ho for the humble ice man.
For water's shy.
So ice is high—
A toast to the modest ice man.

The tap-tap-tap of the landlord's cane
Is heard on the stairs beginning to wane.
He's forced to raise the rent again.
For he's losing a fortune every day.
To the poorhouse he is on his way.
Can't save a cent.
From all his rent—
A tear for the hero landlord.

Some day upon a lonesome sea—
An epitaph for all to see—
A victim of prosperity.
Who gave his all that others might
Roll up their fortunes over night.
Sing ho for the wit consumer!
Give him your vote.
As the world's prize goes—
"Here Lies Old Uta Consumer."

Diogenes was even wiser than history gave him credit for being. He started right out living in a tub and didn't waste any time looking for an apartment.

Who's Who Today

EMPEROR EUGENIE.
Recent news reports say that former Empress Eugenie is expected soon at Madrid. Eugenie, widow of Napoleon III, and one of the most famous women of the nineteenth century, will be ninety-four years old on May 5. She has been a widow just half a century. She was married to Napoleon III in 1853. Her only child, the Prince Imperial, was killed in Zululand in 1879.

Since 1871 Eugenie has made her home in England, where she spends the greater part of her time. In the winter she goes to the Riviera in Southern France. According to recent reports, she has retained her faculties to a remarkable degree, although there are now, of course, few traces of the beauty that made her famous in the days of the second French empire. Eugenie was the daughter of a Spanish nobleman, the Count de Montijo, and was married to Napoleon III in 1853. Her only child, the Prince Imperial, was killed in Zululand in 1879.

Carlotta, former Empress of Mexico, another "queen of sorrows" is still living, although long insane. She lives in Belgium. Carlotta, now eighty years old, is the widow of the Emperor Maximilian, the Austrian archduke whom Napoleon III made emperor of Mexico. He was shot by the Mexicans at Queretaro, in 1867, after the French support was withdrawn. Carlotta was born a Belgian princess, sister of the late King Leopold II and aunt of King Albert. Maximilian was the brother of the late Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary.

LOOKING BACKWARD

FORTY YEARS AGO.
April 21, 1880.—Mrs. Mary Ann Harrison, died at her home on Hickory street last night after a lingering illness. She has lived here for thirty-one years.—Star.

THIRTY YEARS AGO.
April 21, 1890.—Little Sammie Echlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Echlin, fell from a horse at the "Three Mile Creek" yesterday afternoon, and was seriously injured. The horse was owned by him. He was brought home by George Dennison, who happened to be passing that way. E. O. Kimberley left this city today to accept a position as clerk in the census bureau at Washington, D. C.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.
April 21, 1900.—The two Methodist churches of this city, the Court Street Methodist church and the First Methodist church, decided at a joint meeting last night to federate. It will be known as the First Methodist church of Janesville. The present structure will be sold in time and a new one built on the west side of the river.

TEN YEARS AGO.
April 21, 1910.—The four-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Boyer was bitten by a large snake near his residence yesterday afternoon. The bite is on the knee, and although badly swollen, will have no serious results. A committee of business men will be organized to raise a fund for having band concerts weekly in the park.

Dealers in Domestic

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

New York, April 21.—One of the most popular and successful agencies in the world today is the domestic service agency. Agencies are everywhere, in spite of the much-lamented scarcity of servants for every nationality and color, supply everything from a Japanese butler to a Swedish nursery maid.

Usually, the entire family seems to be going into the domestic service business. Every day one hears of someone who has just secured a good job to take up the more remunerative occupation of servant, scouting of someone who has added domestic service to his regular occupation, or of a woman who has spent most of his time in rounding up acquaintances who are willing to espouse domestic service long enough for him to collect his commission.

Large Profit Derived.
It is a matter of doing a small business at a large profit so that it is not remarkable that so many people find it attractive. Householders have become reconciled to the fact that they must pay whatever the agents of them, and usually, offer slight resistance. Indeed, many householders have become so utterly covered by the influence of the agent, that in New York that they are prepared to offer large bonuses to persons who will help them to obtain domestic service. In addition to these bonuses, of course, are in addition to the usual charge of $10 per servant. The agencies also collect a satisfaction fee from the servant, the agent can about figure what the profit for one day of fairly good scouting would be.

Proprietor Figures Profits.
In many agencies, indeed, there appears to be little work for the proprietor to do but to figure up and collect his fees. He can assign various districts for domestic help, it is true, but after he is fairly well known the domestic employers of servants are required to do the same. The day when cooks and waitresses came to you to apply for jobs in your household is now forever. Now both employer and employee meet in the office of the agency and fight the battle of prospective employment. The agent, while the agent retires to read a novel, play solitaire, or otherwise occupy his abundant leisure. In the case of a domestic servant, the agent is returning only at the hour of victory or defeat as the case may be.

Help Is Particular.
After making a tour of several agencies one begins to wonder if the difficulties in obtaining domestic servants are not in part due to the attitude of the agencies, which in many cases is one of studied insolence. They never lose an opportunity to tell the client in the presence of a row of waiting domestics that the servant scarcity is so acute that the servants have the upper hand and that they must assign them to themselves to paying any price for domestic help, and that the help itself must be elaborately accommodated if it is to remain where it is put.

After such a harangue, one woman who wanted a butler and cook for her country house, the other a waitress and a maid, and the third a "presented" by the agent, that if they came they would have to have two hours of each day to play golf, and the last a couple of mornings ago New Yorkers breathed a sigh of this order when they read a dispatch from the United States Labor Department, saying that domestic servants would now be given free entrance to this country, but the sigh proved to be premature.

Golf for the Butler.
"Well, you said there was a golf links, and so far as I can see that is the only means of recreation you have to offer us in the country. Of course we are servants (this in the same tone as if he had said "I am a millionaire") but servants are in need of recreation the same as anybody else."

Some of the agencies look more like saloons and tea rooms than like business offices, and there is one on Fifth Avenue which looks like, and has the same sort of exclusive atmosphere as a private art gallery. If you visit this agency to apply for a job, you are interviewed in a small, snug room, and the agent, who is a typewriter in it. If your need is one servant, you are apt to be interviewed in this room. But if you want two or three, the agent takes you to a large room, crowded with paintings and statuary and bowls of artificial flowers. Behind an ornate mahogany drawing-room desk an elderly woman is seated grantly on a

Q. When and where does the electoral college meet? G. S.

A. Properly speaking there is no such institution as an electoral college. The electors who are voted for by the people meet in their respective states and cast their votes for president and vice president. These are sealed and sent by special messenger to the United States Capitol, where they are opened by the president of the senate, acting as speaker of the senate. He delivers them to the speaker of the house, who in the presence of both houses of congress assembled opens the votes and declares the result.

Q. Who was called the Scourge of God? G. S.

A. This was a name given to Attila, King of the Huns, who was the terror of Europe in the fifth century.

Q. What meant by crossing the Rubicon? T. E. D.

A. The Rubicon was the old name of a stream which separates Cisalpine Gaul from Italy proper. Caesar by crossing it in 49 B. C. virtually declared war against the republic. For this reason the expression is used to mean taking an irrevocable step.

Q. When was the first professional game of baseball played that resulted in a 1-0 score? W. M.

A. On May 27, 1875, a game was played in St. Louis, which ended with a score of Chicago 1—St. Louis 0.

Q. What are the pastoral epistles? D. M. I.

A. These are a group in the collection of the New Testament letters which in their several addresses claim to have been written by the Apostle Paul. They differ from his other writings in being addressed to churches, and dealing with charges concerning pastoral care of certain fields, and comprise First Timothy, Second Timothy, and Titus.

Q. How old is Cleomeceus? C. G. A.
A. Georges Benjamin Eugene Cleomeceus was born in 1941, and was therefore a three-year-old child.
Q. Where are Crooked Islands? M. S.

WHAT'S A HOME WITHOUT A BABY?

I get far too many letters that run something like this:

"We are a young couple only recently married. Of course, we expect to raise a family when we are in better circumstances, but just at present we have to do with a limited income and as we are trying to pay for a small home."

"Well, if the home is more important than the baby this marriage business is all wrong. Why marry? To all writers or prospective writers along the line of the letter quoted let me say that the government has nicely furnished cells in its various penal institutions for any one who gives information on the subject of 'birth control'."

A home is strictly a secondary consideration of you want a baby. A home without any baby is a waste place. No matter how much you fuss with it or how beautifully you furnish it, it is here nearly paid for, and if there is no baby to hallow or consecrate the place it scarcely deserves the name of home. It is just a house.

For the first 10 years or so of married life too many misguided people try to postpone the arrival of the baby while struggling to pay the mortgage. For the second 10 years of married life these same misguided people frantically but unavailingly seek the aid of physicians because no baby comes to reign in the little home. This is one of the saddest tragedies of modern life. The loneliness that pervades the home, once the place has been secured against loss and furnished as luxuriously as the family can, is a terrible contemplation and must be heart-breaking to endure.

The young people are not content to begin housekeeping on the meager scale their parents found sufficient. Nowadays the young ones imagine they must have everything at the beginning. They think they must start housekeeping with at least as much and as good equipment as families that have been accumulating for years. In order to enter married life on this advanced status they are willing to sacrifice the very aim and end of marriage itself. It is the saddest reason that the modern type of animated collar advertisement in high school yearbooks is so sophisticated and full with a cleverness and an eloquence that starting housekeeping want to make a noise like an established family. It is precisely. The high school smart Aleck has begged the price of his cigarettes from over-indulgent parents—not being man enough to earn it himself. The extravagant young couple raise a whirlwind by cleaning the baby out of the right to be born.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Curability of Syphilis.

Have salvarsan and mercury any bad after-effects, and if so, are they destructive? After a positive cure of a case of three-plus syphilis is a person in as good condition as before contracting it? (C. R. D.)

ANSWER:—Salvarsan—or 606—or neo-salvarsan—or 914—or any of the arsenic compounds—contains much arsenic, and sometimes untold damage to the system. As I have often said, I would be content with the older mode of treatment which was in vogue prior to the introduction of these arsenic compounds, if I had syphilis. In my opinion, a person who once contracts syphilis must be considered always syphilitic, though treatment will arrest the disease. Just as a treatment arrests tuberculosis. I agree with those physicians who believe that an annual brief course of anti-syphilitic treatment in every case of syphilis is the only safe and sane method of appearance and purposes an individual whose syphilis has been arrested is to be as good as cured as before, just as an individual whose tuberculosis has been arrested is. Many physicians of wide experience and high judgment do believe, I think, that by a certain amount of vigorous treatment with the newer arsenic compounds and with the older mercury compounds will completely cure syphilis. I am sorry I can't say that, but would advise every syphilitic to undergo a short course of such treatment, whatever his physician may deem advisable, every year against relapse.

Contrary Mary.

Please tell me what remedy one can use for corns and calluses. I do not wear very high-heeled shoes, but just pointed shoes. (Mary L.)

ANSWER:—It is scarcely worth while to treat corns and calluses and go on wearing pointed shoes. You can get a hygienic, and good-looking shoe if you like. Corns and calluses may be gradually softened and removed by soaking the feet in hot water, with a solution of one ounce of colloid in half an ounce of alcohol.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

THE DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL IN WHICH THE HEROINE DISCOVERS THAT THE HERO HAS A DUAL PERSONALITY.

June 2—Jack has a dual personality. I never dreamed that possible, but I have seen evidence of same, and am quite impressed by my discovery.

Today he called me up to ask me to lunch with him, and at one o'clock I met him at the nice little grill room we are both so fond of.

He was full of new schemes and talked about his trip out west with as much enthusiasm as I do about Paris and Vienna. It seems that he is to be gone at least five months, as the firm has decided to open a western office, and have just thought out all the details of establishing their "out in Salt Lake City. My lips trembled as he told me this great news, for I suddenly feared that we might have to settle down there, when we are married. I am saved, however, for Jack has already told them that he will not consider doing so, and all is safe on the Potomac, as the saying goes.

On the contrary, he wants to have a place down on Long Island, where we can get into town easily, and yet be far away from the "rear of the city as possible. Poor dear, Jack little dreams that said "rear" is the breath of his Lindsey's nostrils. I said nothing, however. I can be the most tactful of men, and I am with us. They were all very nice, and Jack whispered to me, before they came, that they were very influential in the architectural world, that I would be meeting them, and their wives a good bit later, and so on.

Well, it was too amusing, though somewhat disconcerting, to watch these three men gradually forget little me.

They got on the subject of building, and it was not off. I suddenly remembered casual remarks of mother's on the cleverness of a woman being able to face herself at the proper moment. I realized that there was one of those moments when the man considered woman a minor problem, so I just smiled inside, and listened.

It was then that I first knew that my Jack has a dual personality. Of course not like the awful Dr. Jekyll and Hyde character, but—well here's the story.

Those three men got deeper and deeper into the subject of building, present and future, and I gradually found myself hopelessly confused and beginning to wonder if all Jack's friends were so peculiarly wrapped up in their business as these. They seemed like such nice young men, it was too bad. One of them I decided would make a corking model, but I caught myself and wondered what thoughts in time.

Once I studied Jack's profile (it's a very nice one, by the way) and to my astonishment I did not recognize it at all. In some mysterious way the Jack that I knew had vanished, leaving in its place a stony-faced person totally unknown to me. His muscles were steady, and he clipped his words short, when he discussed

SHE'S FRENCH FROM TIPS OF HER SHOES TO HER COIFFURE

By ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Mildred can be French in every detail of her wardrobe. It she so desires this spring. The French woman who affects French clothes is not only stylish, but she is also a good housewife. She is not only fashionable in her choice but she is becomingly dressed. Her little patent leather shoes are very dainty for afternoon and house wear. The blue tulle frock which, while it is very plain and simple, is very French with its short skirt and short sleeves. Gold silk faces the sleeves and gold trimming finishes the neckline. This bit of color contrast and the draping at the hips are the only evidences of trimming on the whole frock. The hair is arranged low over the forehead and over the ears, parted in the middle and drawn back into a knot at the back of the head. It is curled and waved much more than the ordinary American coiffure is.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON
Letters May be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette

Dear Mrs. Thompson: What I am about to say will sound unmanly, but understand, please, that I have never before said one word to anyone against my wife. I think no self-respecting man wants his friends to know he has the worst of it in marriage.

I am 34 and was forced into a loveless marriage at 20. My parents were well to do and had always been strict with me, too much so in fact, but I won't go into that. They put me out of the family, gave me a thousand and shoved me off. I took my medicine. I am no quitter and have tried hard to make my wife and home happy.

I stood all kinds of neglect and "kept smiling," but when the baby came I could not stand the neglect of him and so we quarreled a good deal. The little fellow only lived a year and since then the place is a mainly lonesome, for we have no child in common. My wife dislikes housework, wants to live at a good hotel where she would be free to do nothing but look pretty, though she well knows we could never afford that.

Our home is about as untidy a place as one could imagine. How can I think of mending the neglect of my wife? I am not boasting, but I think I am a good housewife. I am not exaggerating when I say it is rare indeed that I have a square meal at home unless I prepare it myself. And by "square" I do not mean a fancy course affair, just a plain home cooked "feed."

I suppose I have no legal ground for divorce, and if I had I do not believe I could get it. I am not a man, I am a plain bigamy, but that is my wife. I like most men I have ever known, but I am not a quitter. I have stood it four years and can for the rest of time if necessary.

I have read in your column many a time of women complaining of their husbands and your advice not to change said husbands. I suppose the same advice would apply to me, and I am not a quitter, but I am not a quitter. I have stood it four years and can for the rest of time if necessary.

It seems to me that both you and your wife would be happier if you separated. You could pay her a monthly allowance without getting a divorce, and do you think that, that both of you would want it.

In a sense a man who marries more than once is a bigamist. On the other hand, do you think that for two people who do not love each other to live together, unless they sacrifice themselves for the sake of children?

Your wife is 22, you say. It is a pity that she undertook the responsibilities of married life before she was old enough to settle down. I believe that a good vacation would help both of you. Let her go away for six months.

Sincerely yours,

Luncheon—Creamed Turnip with Pimentos on Toast. Homemade Rolls. Grape Jelly. Bread Pudding with Canned Peaches. Cocoa.

Dinner—Cream of Tomato Soup. Crackers. Stuffed Pork Steak. Mashed Potatoes. Creamed Spinach. Fruit Salad. Bread and Butter. Plain Cake. Cake.

RECIPES FOR TODAY

Creamed Turnip with Pimentos on Toast.—Make a white sauce of two cups of milk, two tablespoons of flour, one tablespoon of butter, salt and pepper to taste. Add to it the contents of one-half pound can of turnips and one-half small can of red pimentos, chopped fine. Reheat and serve on buttered toast. This amount will serve four or five.

Fruit Salad.—Take three tart apples, two large oranges, three bananas and one-half can pineapple pieces and mix, adding a little sugar, pieces of milk, adding a little sugar, and set away to chill. Serve on crisp head lettuce on individual salad plates with mayonnaise dressing topped with chopped walnuts.

Home Made Rolls.—Scald one-half pint milk, add one tablespoon salt, three teaspoons sugar and one cake compressed yeast dissolved in one-half cup lukewarm water, and flour enough to make a light sponge. Beat well and set away to rise about one and one-half hours. Then add two eggs, one cup sugar, two tablespoons melted oil, and six cardamom seeds, which you can get from the druggist. (Remove seeds from the shells and put in corner of cloth or towel, fold over enclosing seeds in sack and crush with hammer on hard surface.) Add flour enough to make a dough that can be handled. Turn out on board and knead till dough is smooth and spongy, put back into bowl and let rise again one and one-half hours. Then roll out again on board and form into balls by rolling between the hand and board.

Place in pans and let rise one hour. Bake about 15 minutes. Coffee cake can also be made from the same dough by doubling this recipe. Then divide the dough for rolls and coffee cake. When making coffee cake cut the dough into strips and roll them out, braiding or twisting the strips together. Then moisten the dough with a little milk and sprinkle with cinnamon and sugar. Bake from 15 minutes to one hour.

Enriched Eggs on Biscuit.—This makes a very pleasing breakfast change. The biscuit should be rolled out to make a thickness of one-half inch, slightly larger than the pan, spread with butter and place poached egg on top. The eggs should be poached in salt water, spread with butter and steam three large sour apples. Rub through a sieve, cool.

Whip white of three eggs to very stiff peaks with one-half cup powdered sugar, gradually add apple and whip long time till white and stiff. Pipe in dish and garnish with dots of currant or raspberry jelly.

Farsup Fritters.—To two cups hot mashed potatoes add one teaspoon butter or substitute, one-third teaspoon salt, little pepper, one egg (or one-half teaspoon baking powder instead), one tablespoon of flour or more to make a stiff mixture in a pan. Shape into flour or crumbs, fry in drippings to golden brown.

CLOSED YEAR ON TRAPPING MUSKRAT IS APPROVED

Sheboygan—Members of the Sheboygan County Fish and Game Protective association gathered in the city hall here following a call issued by W. E. Barber, chairman of the conservation commission, and approval was registered of a closed season for one year on trapping muskrats and muskrat fur. A favorable vote was taken on a one-buck law and the extension of the opening of the black bass season from June to July 15.

For a wonder the dope stood the test. After three days of low bowling, leaders in every class in the city bowling tournament took tumble last night.

Winners of the City League tournament at a hot and heavy race, the Arcade five last night rushed in to the lead in the five man event winning the Gazette cup, and a few other much coveted prizes, by a margin of 63 pins. Five-man bowling is now finished. Rolling 926 and 981 in their final two games, the quintet looked good to hit the 2700 mark, but they dropped down in their style in the final round. The work of Paulus, with one of 318 at 24, and Nelson, was a feature.

The new standings push Parker out of third place. The other games, which were the last in the five man event for the classic, did not get into the money bunch. Boston's Five made 2,220 and Boston's 2,031.

In the doubles, Hilgers and Kirschhoff went into first place when they scattered the ropes for a grand total of 1,215. 81 more than leading with 1,134. However, with a series of double headers on for tonight, the final evening of the meet, their position is not sure, and they may be unseated.

The big dumpings came in the singles when the three leaders were kicked out without any regard for feelings. Hilgers, Kirschhoff and Nelson for Kueck with 574 and Shoemaker also with 554, very nicely fell into the top seats, putting out Hilgers, Cornell and Nelson. The other scores did not figure in the high standings.

Keenest interest is shown in what will take place tonight. There do not appear to be any in the lineup who will display much danger to the present leaders, but the breaks may come in ten pins.

Including "Ted" Hager, last year's steady pitcher for the All-Stars, in their lineup, the Janesville Olympians are getting an amateur aggregation together which they claim will be one of the fastest in the city and southern Wisconsin. Manager Anderson and Captain Meyer state that they have been scouting for the past month for material.

Hennings will handle the big mit behind the bat for his second year with the team. Working with Hager on the mound will be "Old Faithful" Eddie Z. Allen, said to have a mixture of curves of selling stuff. Anderson declares Allen was sought by a number of other nines, but decided to stick with his mates.

Other players are: Leeson at first; Meyer on second; "Butch" Raubacher on third, who also is a relief pitcher; in the field, U. Anderson, Berman and C. Anderson. Practice starts Sunday and will be held regularly thereafter on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

wrestler, won with a toe hold over Sam Clapham, British champion at Forest City last night after one hour and 14 minutes of wrestling. The grip injured his ankle to such an extent that he was unable to come back for the second fall.

CARDS HUMBLE CUBS; WHITE SOX IN FOG

NATIONAL LEAGUE
For a change the skies did not spit water at St. Louis yesterday, but it rained just the same. The Cards knocked three Cub pitchers out of the box, made a homer, and won for the second time, 10 to 3.
The Brooklyn Trolley Dodgers are in a tie for first place. Holy smokes, old Ebbers must have made Pinchburgh ring last night. The trick was done by Rookie Wallace. Flood from Moosajaw when he crashed out a two bagger sending the only run across in the seventh.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
The White Sox were going fine yesterday afternoon, leading 1 to 0 at the end of the third, when a regular London fog spread across the park at Chicago and called the game when the men could not see the pill. Three hours were taken by the Indians to beat the Tigers yesterday 11 to 10. Each nine used five pitchers.

HUGGINS AND DECKER WIN INDOOR BASEBALL
Huggins' Company A team defeated Kelp's Company C at indoor baseball yesterday in the Junior B league of the Y. M. C. A. Decker's Company B bunched put one over on Plerson's Company D, 10 to 5.

SAMSON NINE PLAYS MILTON TEAM TODAY

Augmented by a new outfielder, Avery who last year hung around the outer garden of the Bloomington. Three Eye league club, Samson Tractor Nine plays Milton college at Milton this afternoon. There is no telling what is going to happen. Milton has a strong nine and has played with Beloit and the University of Wisconsin, and has made an even break of the winners. Samson has not yet played together, but the material is such that it predicts a good season.

What Avery can do is not known. He has been working at the plant and today made application for a berth. He will get his tryout.
Winthrop Saturday
On Friday, Samson will play another game with Milton at Milton. Saturday will be the first big day for the Tractor club. They will meet the Winthrop team of the Northern League at Whitewater to play off the game scheduled for last Sunday, but cancelled because of the rain.
Sunday is another red letter day. The Samsonians journey to Chicago to take on the Pyot Foundry, formerly the Gunthers.
Because of park conditions at Milwaukee, the game scheduled for May 2 at the Cream City with the McCoy All-Stars has been switched. As a result that date is open.

Sports Are Builders of Cities, Too

(BY FRANK SINCLAIR)
If there is anything which the American public enjoys thoroughly and which makes for a better, more contented race, that thing is clean, wholesome sports. America is noted as an athletically inclined people, its women as well as its men.

In sports, played for sports' sake, we have a wonderful power to develop our youth from the first days of the yearning for competition, to develop their bodies along well-balanced lines, keep their minds and eyes sharp and clear, and imbue them with that true sense of fair play and team play that is so essential to a successful, rounded-out life.

The Romans well recognized this fact and they were rulers of the world. Disregard of real sportsmanship sent that nation to its doom. The Greeks heralded sports in their classics. Literature abounds with tales of the wonderful spirit of sportsmanship. History cannot be read without learning of the great part sports have played in the advance of civilization.

Janesville today is advancing. We are confronted with a period of industrial expansion. Many people and more are and will be engaged in confining work. These workers must have exercise. The Samsonians have recognized the problem in organizing the Employees' Association. But the city must not stop there. While all agree with and admire the Tractor plant's program in this respect, we must realize that it necessarily must ignore a considerable portion of the other citizens of the city.

Why not organize a Janesville Athletic Association of the live sportsmen from every branch of athletics in the city? backed by the business and professional men whose purpose will be to give Janesville every facility for the complete enjoyment of sports.

A building permit was issued Tuesday to the Rex Photo Service, a new local concern, which is erecting a $3,700 one-story building at the east end of Racine street bridge. Number 28 has been assigned the building, which will be used as a photographic laboratory.

It will be constructed of concrete blocks, 22x40.

J. E. Dedrick was granted a permit to build a 20x30 frame house on Bourchard avenue, a new street in the Carrington-Crown addition in the third ward. The estimated cost is $2,000.

Three remodeling permits were also issued by Francis J. Blair, city building inspector, in addition to a permit for a private garage issued to J. F. School, 513 Oakland avenue.

The program is being arranged by two members of the library commission at Madison, Miss Jessie Merrill and Mrs. Winifred Davis. Miss Fannie Cox, local librarian, will act as hostess assisted by her staff. "Americanism" will be the chief topic for discussion which will be followed up by "Teaching Women to Vote." A luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock at the Grand hotel.

JANESVILLE MAN IS BOOSTED FOR COUNTY CHAIRMAN

McGOWAN MENTIONED AS CANDIDATE TO HEAD
SUPERVISORS THIS YEAR.

NOT CAMPAIGNING

Seek Office Because No Janesville Man Has Had It in 16 Years.

At the request of several members of the board of supervisors, E. D. McGowan, representative from the third ward, Janesville, has sent out letters to the members of the board asking their support in electing him chairman of the legislative body at the April session, opening next Monday, to succeed George W. Hall, resigned. It is understood that W. W. Dalton, town of Clinton, is also seeking the office.

Commenting today upon his action, Mr. McGowan stated:

"Of course, you understand that I am vice-chairman of the board. When the matter was brought up by some of the members at the close of the last session, and they asked me to work for the chairmanship, I refused. I do not care to go after the office, nor do I want to bring politics into the board of supervisors."

"However, when the matter was put up to me in the light that it is Janesville's turn to have the chairman, I did as they suggested, and sent out letters to the members. Understand I did not do it along political lines, and it was not of my seeking. I don't care to campaign for the position."

Janesville has not had a chairman of the board for 16 years, when J. L. Bear, this city, held the office. Since then Beloit has had two men in the position, Simon Smith and F. F. Livermore. The town of Beloit had a chairman in H. B. Mosely. Others were F. F. Jones, Clinton; H.

C. Gray, Evansville; Edward Hopkins, Edgerton; John A. Paul, Milton, and George W. Hall, Johnson. In discussing the situation, Mr. McGowan stated that he believes that now that Beloit has been redistricted into nine wards, thus having four more supervisors than Janesville with its five wards, that this city should likewise be split up into districts. It will not be quite fair, he said, for Beloit to have nine supervisors and Janesville only five. It is his belief that something should be done in the near future.

They were married at Beloit, May 15, 1917. She left him he says, without cause, in March of last year, the child being born in November.
